Neguse Wins Assembly

Joe Neguse, candidate for CU Regent in CD-2, won today's assembly by a 84-16% margin

May 10, 2008

Boulder, Colo – Delegates from across Colorado voted overwhelmingly today for Joe Neguse. Winning 84% of the vote, Neguse is the only candidate that has earned a spot on the August ballot. His opponent, Curt Williams, failed to reach threshold, earning only 16% of voters.

“I am humbled by the results of today's vote, I am humbled by the support we've received so far, and I am honored to have the opportunity to continue our campaign” Neguse said Saturday. “

“People are rallying around the ideas of making CU more affordability and more accessible to all Coloradans, and I am so excited to continue working hard to earn the privilege of representing our district as a CU Regent.”

Neguse was nominated by Speaker Andrew Romanoff, and he was seconded by former party chair Britta Singer and current Regent Michael Carrigan.
